

sententiae de picturis secundae

skill	starting out	working on it	on target	extending beyond writing a Latin sentence	I can write a Latin sentence containing a subject and verb.	I can write a Latin sentence with a subject, verb and direct object with some spelling errors.	I can write a simple Latin sentence with a subject, verb, and a direct object.	I can write simple Latin sentences containing prepositional phrases and direct objects in authentic Latin word order.

Purpose: We now know three cases in Latin. Can you use all three in your writing?

Task: Using your grammar notes and your textbook, come up with VI glorious Latin sentences describing the VI pictures provided. Try to use all three cases you know as often as possible.

